

DRAGON RACING

Hello Dragon Friends,

We are delighted to announce the Curbstone Powered by DR88 2026/2027 Provisional Test Day Calendar. Following another successful season, we are excited to welcome both familiar faces and new teams as preparations begin for the 2026/2027 racing season.

Our Test Days have become a valued part of the regional motorsport calendar, bringing together drivers, teams and engineers in a professional environment focused on development, preparation and performance. Whether you're preparing for a championship campaign, evaluating new components or simply looking to maximise valuable seat time, Curbstone Powered by DR88 provide the ideal opportunity to get the very best from your car and your team.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

3H Test Days

Our flagship 3H Test Days return for the new season, offering three hours of uninterrupted circuit running. Designed for race teams, professional drivers and serious enthusiasts alike, these sessions provide the perfect environment to prepare, refine and build confidence ahead of race weekends.
